CAMPUS-WIDE COMMITMENT
The School of Law’s commitment to diversity is shared with our overall University. A sample of the University-Wide student organizations is as follows:

- African Students Association
- Ashoka- South Asian Students Association
- Asian American Association
- Asian Multicultural Council
- Association of Black Students
- Association of Latin American Students
- Black Women/Jewish Women
- Chinese Students Association
- Garuda- Indonesian Awareness
- Heisei Japan Club
- Hip Hop Congress
- Hong Kong Student Association
- Italian Cultural Society
- Korean Students Association
- Mixed-Mixed heritage awareness
- Pride Alliance- GLBTQIA
- Taiwanese Student Association
- Turkish Student Association
- Vietnamese Student Association
- Witaya- American Indian Awareness

The School of Law’s Diversity Symposium is open to all and benefits not only law students but the greater St. Louis community as well.

TO LEARN MORE ABOUT WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, VISIT OUR WEBSITE AT

http://law.wustl.edu

TO APPLY ONLINE

https://law.wustl.edu/Admissions

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
ADMISSIONS

Office of Admissions
Campus Box 1120
St. Louis, MO 63130-4899
Phone: (314) 935-4525
Fax: (314) 935-8778
E-mail: admiss@wulaw.wustl.edu
Hours: Monday through Friday
8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. CT
COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY

The School of Law has a longstanding and continuous commitment to the education, growth and the professional development of students from diverse backgrounds and with diverse areas of interest.

DIVERSITY SYMPOSIUM

This Spring, the School of Law will host its first Diversity Symposium. The Symposium is the creation of the Student Bar Association’s Diversity Committee. This Committee consists of executive members of all the ALSA organizations and OUTLAW. The symposium is posed to be an annual event that will not only benefit law students but also legal professionals throughout the community.

LAW SCHOOL STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

The School of Law supports a broad variety of student groups representing a wide spectrum of interests and opinions. These groups contribute immeasurably to the vitality of our community and provide students with a place to advocate, serve, and otherwise engage in the larger academic, cultural and legal worlds. Our student organizations include:

- Asian Pacific American Law Students Association (APALSA)
- Black Law Student Association (BLSA)
- Latin American Law Students Association (LALSA)
- OUTLAW
- South Asian Law Students Association (SALSA)
- Women’s Law Caucus

In addition, we have student organizations that represent the vast interest of our students, such as:

- American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU)
- American Constitution Society
- American Trial Lawyers Association
- Barely Legal Theater
- Christian Law Society
- Criminal Law Society
- Devil’s Advocate
- Environmental Law Society
- Equal Justice Works
- Family Law Society
- Federalist Society
- Golf Club
- Graduate Professional Council
- Honor Council
- Illinois Student Bar Association
- Intellectual Property Law Society
- International Law Society
- Jewish Law Society
- Joint Degree Society
- Law Students for Choice
- Law Students For Life
- National Lawyers Guild
- Phi Alpha Delta
- Second Career Law Students
- Sports and Entertainment Law Society
- Sport Shooting Society
- Student Bar Association (SBA)
- Student Health Lawyers’ Association (SHLA)

SCHOLARSHIP/ FELLOWSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

- Webster Society Scholarship offers financial support to students with outstanding credentials and a demonstrated commitment to public service. This is a full-tuition scholarship plus stipend.
- Walter Moran Farmer Scholarship provides a full-tuition scholarship and small stipend to students of color with intellectual, leadership and community service achievements.
- Buder Memorial Scholarship is awarded by the Buder Foundation to Native American students on the basis of a demonstrated potential for success in law school.
- Olin Fellowship for Women was established to encourage women of exceptional promise seeking careers in higher education and the professions.
- Chancellor’s Graduate Fellowship was created for the purpose of providing strong encouragement as well as generous financial support to outstanding, diverse students interested in careers as college or university professors.

Additional information about all of our scholarship/fellowship opportunities can be found on our website at http://law.wustl.edu/Admissions.