BAR ASSOCIATION INFORMATION

Bar associations are professional legal organizations with membership based on factors including common geography, affinity group and/or specialty. Participating in bar association events (i.e., committee involvement, continuing legal education classes, etc.) is a great way to build a resource network and learn more about specific practice areas. Most associations encourage student involvement and offer student memberships at a very low cost, so take advantage of the opportunity to get to know your future colleagues now.

- East King County Bar Association – www.ekcba.org. Encompasses Seattle’s Eastside legal community.
- King County Bar Association – www.kcba.org. Encompasses Seattle
- Washington State Bar Association – www.wsba.org

SPECIALTY BAR ASSOCIATIONS

- Asian Bar Association of Washington – www.abaw.org
- Washington State Trial Lawyers’ Association – www.wstla.org
- Washington Women Lawyers – www.wwl.org

ALUMNI RESOURCES

Alumni from Washington University Law and one’s undergraduate institution can be a tremendous, yet oftentimes overlooked, resource in one’s job search. Alumni can provide invaluable information about a geographic area, a particular practice area, or the legal profession in general through an informational interview. Attending an alumni event is a great networking venue – don’t be shy; go and introduce yourself to others. You never know what you may learn!

- Alumni Connections Database – More than 1,200 Washington University Law Alumni/ae from around the country may be found in this database, assembled by the Alumni & Development Office, and willing to serve as a resource. Available on the Law School Intranet, mylaw.wustl.edu, under Documents.
- Washington University Law Alumni Class Notes – http://law.wustl.edu/alumni/classnotes.asp – Class Notes is a compilation of information that alumni submit to Washington University Law about their professional and personal lives.
University Career Connections Database – Database of over 8,000 Washington University alumni & parents who have identified themselves as willing to assist in career path research – www.wustlconnections.com; click on career & networking services, student or alumni login.

Another great way to search for Washington University Law alumni or alumni from your undergraduate school is to use LEXISNEXIS (www.lexis.com) to access the Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory.
  - For example, to find Wash U law alumni who practice in Seattle, from “Legal>Research,” select “Martindale-Hubbell Listings, All.” Type: LAW-SCHOOL (washington pre /1 university and not george) and CITY (Seattle).
  - To search for your undergraduate alumni, type: COLLEGE (Vanderbilt) and CITY (Seattle).

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION (CLE) PROVIDERS

Participation in CLE events offers students and alumni the two-fold benefit of learning practical information about a relevant, substantive legal topic while networking with practicing attorneys in your desired geographical region and substantive interest areas. A CLE program offers a myriad of ways to facilitate networking with attorneys practicing in your desired field. Strike up a conversation with the person sitting next to you. Smile and introduce yourself to people during coffee breaks. Approach the panel of speakers during a break or after the session, or write to members of the panel following the program. Ask for business cards, and follow-up. Don’t be shy. Often, attorneys attend these events both to gain knowledge and to network themselves. While not all states have a CLE requirement, every state offers CLE opportunities through local bar associations, CLE organizations, and local law schools.

RECIROCITY

The CSO can request reciprocal services on your behalf from the career services office at an out-of-state law school typically between November 1 and August 15. The services that schools offer reciprocity recipients, and the dates during which reciprocal services are rendered, vary. For example, some law schools do not provide access to job listings. Other law schools limit reciprocity to alumni or alumni and 3Ls, and suspend reciprocity starting July 15. For more information about requesting reciprocity, contact the CSO. Consider requesting reciprocity from one of the following schools:

- Gonzaga University School of Law (Spokane, WA) – all students and alumni. http://www.law.gonzaga.edu/Career+Services/Reciprocity/default.asp
- Seattle University School of Law (Seattle, WA) – 2Ls, 3Ls, and alumni. http://www.law.seattleu.edu/career/reciprocity?mode=standard • University of Washington School of Law (Seattle, WA) – 3Ls and alumni.
  http://www.law.washington.edu/Career/

NALP provides an alphabetical listing of law schools and reciprocity policies at http://www.nalp.org/content/index.php?pid=94

N.B.: Do not go to or call another law school’s career services office without first requesting reciprocity access through the Washington University Career Services Office.

LEGAL PUBLICATIONS

Start to acclimate yourself to the local legal market by reading its related publications. The information you learn will help you define your target audience during networking and job search efforts.
You can also use your new familiarity with the local bar to distinguish yourself in an interview situation.
The following resources might also contain job postings.

• EINnews.com, provides live digital news feeds of breaking Washington legal news –
  http://www.einnews.com/washington/newsfeed-washington-law
• Washington State Bar News – www.wsba.org/media/publications/barnews

LOCAL PUBLICATIONS AND INFORMATION

If you are considering relocating, it is very important to have some knowledge of the region.
Reading local publications, such as newspapers and business journals, will give you a general understanding of the local landscape and hot current topics, and can even spark creative networking ideas.
Keep up with local market and real estate conditions and explore what cultural activities the region offers.
Most importantly, in the interview context your knowledge of the geographical region will reflect your commitment to relocate.
