BAR ASSOCIATION INFORMATION

Bar associations are professional legal organizations with membership based on factors including common geography, affinity groups and/or specialty. Participating in bar association events (i.e., committee involvement, continuing legal education classes, etc.) is a great way to build a resource network and learn more about specific practice areas. Most associations encourage student involvement and offer student memberships at a very low cost, so take advantage of the opportunity to get to know your future colleagues now.

ALUMNI RESOURCES

Alumni from Washington University Law and one’s undergraduate institution can be a tremendous, yet oftentimes overlooked, resource in one’s job search. Alumni can provide invaluable information about a geographic area, a particular practice area, or the legal profession in general through an informational interview. Attending an alumni event is a great networking venue – don’t be shy; go and introduce yourself to others. You never know what you may learn!

- Alumni Connections Database – More than 1,200 Washington University Law Alumni/ae from around the country may be found in this database, assembled by the Alumni & Development Office, and willing to serve as a resource. Available on the Law School Intranet, mylaw.wustl.edu, under Documents.
- Washington University Law Alumni Class Notes – http://law.wustl.edu/alumni/classnotes.asp – Class Notes is a compilation of information that alumni submit to Washington University Law about their professional and personal lives.
- University Career Connections Database – Database of over 8,000 Washington University alumni & parents who have identified themselves as willing to assist in career path research – www.wustlconnections.com; click on career & networking services, student or alumni login.
- Another great way to search for Washington University Law alumni or alumni from your undergraduate school is to use LEXISNEXIS (www.lexis.com) to access the Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory.
  - For example, to find Wash U law alumni who practice in Portland, from “Legal>Research,” select “Martindale-Hubbell Listings, All.” Type: LAW-SCHOOL (washington pre /1 university and not george) and CITY (Portland).
  - To search for your undergraduate alumni, type: COLLEGE (Vanderbilt) and CITY (Portland).
Participation in CLE events offers students and alumni the two-fold benefit of learning practical information about a relevant, substantive legal topic while networking with practicing attorneys in your desired geographical region and substantive interest areas. A CLE program offers a myriad of ways to facilitate networking with attorneys practicing in your desired field. Strike up a conversation with the person sitting next to you. Smile and introduce yourself to people during coffee breaks. Approach the panel of speakers during a break or after the session, or write to members of the panel following the program. Ask for business cards, and follow-up. Don’t be shy. Often, attorneys attend these events both to gain knowledge and to network themselves. While not all states have a CLE requirement, every state offers CLE opportunities through local bar associations, CLE organizations, and local law schools.

RECIPROCITY

The CSO can request reciprocal services on your behalf from the career services office at an out-of-state law school typically between November 1 and August 15. The services that schools offer reciprocity recipients, and the dates during which reciprocal services are rendered, vary. For example, some law schools do not provide access to job listings. Other law schools limit reciprocity to alumni or alumni and 3Ls, and suspend reciprocity starting July 15. For more information about requesting reciprocity, contact the CSO. Consider requesting reciprocity from one of the following schools:

- University of Oregon School of Law – all students and alumni.
  www.law.uoregon.edu/career/reciprocity.php

NALP provides an alphabetical listing of law schools and reciprocity policies at http://www.nalp.org/content/index.php?pid=94

N.B.: Do not go to or call another law school’s career services office without first requesting reciprocity access through the Washington University Career Services Office.

LEGAL PUBLICATIONS

Start to acclimate yourself to the local legal market by reading its related publications. The information you learn will help you define your target audience during networking and job search efforts. You can also use your new familiarity with the local bar to distinguish yourself in an interview situation. The following resources might also contain job postings.

If you are considering relocating, it is very important to have some knowledge of the region. Reading local publications, such as newspapers and business journals, will give you a general understanding of the local landscape and hot current topics, and can even spark creative networking ideas. Keep up with local market and real estate conditions and explore what cultural activities the region offers. Most importantly, in the interview context your knowledge of the geographical region will reflect your commitment to relocate.

DIRECTORIES

In addition to databases such as Martindale-Hubbell, NALP Directory of Legal Employers, and West Legal Directory, there are national and local directories for attorneys, firms, companies, financial institutions, public interest organizations, state and federal government organizations, etc. These directories can be valuable tools in researching and collecting contact information for targeted mailings and networking outreach.
• Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory – www.martindale.com – Fill-in form through which one can search for individual attorneys and firms by name, geographic location, and law school or via www.lexis.com – Advanced searches for individual attorneys and firms by segments which include city, firm, firm-size, law-school, name, practice, college, date of admission, and more i.e., firm-size > 50 and city (“Portland”) and law-school (“Washington University School of Law”) and college (“Bates”).

• NALP Directory of Legal Employers – www.nalpdirectory.com – Forms for all NALP members, including law firms, corporations, public interest organizations and government offices. The forms provide demographic information, an organizational narrative, hiring information and other useful resources. The listings are broken down by state and by practice area. Print Resource available in the CSO.

• West Legal Directory – www.westlaw.com or http://lawyers.findlaw.com – Fill-in form through which one can search for individual attorneys and firms by name, geographic location, law school, undergraduate institution, firm-size and more.

• JobNet, offered by the University of Michigan, is a public job site listing of only public service jobs – https://cgi2.www.law.umich.edu/ JobNet/main.asp

• Partnership for Public Service – The goal of the Partnership for Public Service is to encourage job seekers to consider government service. Sign-up for the Partnerships’ e-newsletters, find information on the government internship and job search, and read federal employees’ biographies. http://www.ourpublicservice.org

• PSLawNet is a national database of public service opportunities both nationwide and international for law students. http://www.PSLawNet.org
