Center for the Interdisciplinary Study of Work & Social Capital

Washington University School of Law

Labor Law Movie Series

Professor Marion Crain will lead a 15-20 minute discussion and answer questions after.

Date: Wednesday Oct. 6, 2010
"Norma Rae" - classic story of textile mill organizing in NC; Sally Field and Beau Bridges star.
Time: 5:08 - 7:15 pm (approximately)
Location: Greenfield Classroom (Seigle Hall, Room 109)

Date: Tuesday Oct. 12, 2010
"At the River I Stand" - labor/civil rights documentary, story of sanitation workers labor dispute in Memphis that framed the assassination of MLK.
Time: 5:08 - 6 pm (approximately)
Location: Peper, Martin, Jensen, Maichel and Hetlage (Anheuser-Busch Hall, Room 401)

Tuesday Oct. 26, 2010
"Bread and Roses" - immigrant organizing, Justice for Janitors campaign run by the SEIU in Los Angeles.
Time: 5:08 - 7:15 pm (approximately)
Location: Jordan Foundation Classroom (Anheuser-Busch Hall, Room 204)