Professors Pauline Kim and Peggie Smith will host a discussion on course selection for students considering a career in labor and employment law, and will introduce the new Labor and Employment Law Career Network.

This Network is intended to help students by providing information in the labor and employment law field including:

- Course Advice and Planning
- Summer Fellowships
- Writing Competitions
- Practice Areas & Career Opportunities

Open to all law students - RSVP requested

shenderson@wulaw.wustl.edu

Pizza will be served!