WORK, FAMILIES, AND PUBLIC POLICY

A Biweekly Brown Bag Seminar Series
Topics Relating to Labor, Households, Health Care, Law, and Social Welfare

Spring 2012

February 6: Donna Ginther, University of Kansas, "The Diversity of NIH Research Awardees in Academic Medicine."

February 20: Maria Canon, Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, "The Role of Schools in the Production of Achievement."

March 5: V. Joseph Hotz, Duke University, "The Family that Shares is the Family the Cares: Are Extended Families Efficient in their Sharing?"

March 19: Duncan Thomas, Duke University, "Decision-Making by Households and Families."

April 2: Kimberly D. Krawiec, Duke University School of Law, "Kidneys Without Contracts: The Legal And Ethical Implications of NEAD Chain Bridge Donor Contracts."

April 16: Sandra Black, University of Texas, "Does Money Matter? The Effect of Child Care Subsidies on Academic Performance."

Faculty members and graduate students from Washington University, the University of Missouri, St. Louis University, and other area universities, are invited to participate.

Time: 12:00 to 1:00 PM, with discussion extending to 1:30 p.m., for those interested.

Place: Seigle Hall, Room 348, at Washington University.

For more information, contact:
Bob Pollak, at (314) 935-4918, email: pollak@wustl.edu or
Michael Sherraden, at (314) 935-6691, email: sherrad@wustl.edu

To download papers go online to:
http://www.olin.wustl.edu/Events/Pages/default.aspx
and search for the seminar by date.

Sponsored by the Olin Business School, the George Warren Brown School of Social Work, the Center for Social Development, the Center for Interdisciplinary Studies at the School of Law, the Department of Economics, and the College of Arts and Sciences.

Room courtesy of the Economics Department.
Coffee and soft drinks will be provided.