Labor and Migration Effects of Human Trafficking

MODERATOR

ADRIENNE DAVIS
William M. Van Cleve Professor of Law, Washington University Law

PANEL

BRIDGETTE CARR
Professor and Director of the Clinic on Human Trafficking, University of Michigan Law. Her research and teaching interests focus on human trafficking, immigration, and human rights.

KERRY RITTICH
Professor, Faculty of Law and Women's and Gender Studies Institute at the University of Toronto. She teaches and writes on international institutions, law and development, human rights, labor law, and critical and feminist theory.

SUZANNE LELAURIN
Sr. VP for Individuals and Families and has been employed at the International Institute St. Louis since February 1997. She plans, monitors, and evaluates the operations of Social Services/Mental Health, Employment, Education, and Youth/Elderly departments.

CHANTAL THOMAS
Professor and Director of the Clarke Initiative for Law & Development in the Middle East and North Africa, Cornell University Law. Her scholarship focuses on the relationship between international law, political economy, and global justice. She teaches in the areas of international development law, international trade law, corporations, contracts, and law and globalization.

Cosponsored by the Law & Culture Initiative.