WORK, FAMILIES, AND PUBLIC POLICY

A Biweekly Brown Bag Seminar Series
Topics Relating to Labor, Households, Health Care, Law, and Social Welfare

FALL 2004

September 20  Janet Currie, University of California, Los Angeles, "Socio-Economic Status and Intergenerational Correlations in Birth Weight."

October 4   Robert A. Pollak, Washington University, "Long-Term Care of the Disabled Elderly: Spouses, Children, and Stepchildren."

October 18  Jeff Milyo, University of Missouri, Columbia, "The Causes and Consequences of Social Capital."

November 1  Mary Anne Case, University of Chicago Law School, "The Role of the State in Marriage and the Corporation."

November 15 Peter A. Diamond, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, "Saving Social Security."

November 29 Richard Frank, Harvard University, "Mental Illness, Substance Abuse and Welfare Reform."

Faculty members and graduate students from Washington University, the University of Missouri, St. Louis University, and other area universities, are invited to participate.

Time:  12:00 to 1:00 PM, with discussion extending to 1:30, for those interested

Place:  Eliot Hall, Room 300, at Washington University

For more information, contact:
Bob Pollak, at 935-4918, email: pollak@wustl.edu or Michael Sherraden, at 935-6691, email: sherrad@wustl.edu

To download papers go online to: http://www.olin.wustl.edu/links/and click on the Academic Seminars link on the lower right hand side.

Sponsored by the John M. Olin School of Business, the George Warren Brown School of Social Work, the Center for Social Development, the Center for Interdisciplinary Studies at the School of Law, the Center for Health Policy, the Department of Economics, and the College of Arts and Sciences.

Room courtesy of the Murray Weidenbaum Center on the Economy, Government, and Public Policy. Coffee and soft drinks will be provided.