

Hints to Help Your Day Go Smoothly

- 1) Check the Law School website for weather related updates beginning at 7am.
<http://law.wustl.edu/commencement/>
- 2) Please travel light on the day of commencement – we suggest only items that fit in your pockets (your regalia should also have a pocket).
- 3) Arrive early to be sure that you be in the class photo (A-B Hall, Outside 3rd Floor Entrance).
- 4) You can sit by your friends during the main ceremony (they should be in the front and back of you).
- 5) Law School Line-up will take place at the Athletics Complex, use the sidewalk behind Fraternity Row to enter the Varsity Gym. Report to your spot in the line-up area. Follow the signs. Bring your email with your Line-Up Number.
- 6) Each student will walk across the stage (stay in order) – hand their card to Dean Walsh so your name can be read – and proceed to Dean Staudt who will shake your hand and give you your diploma cover. Exit stage and return to a seat – may not be same seat.
- 7) Reception immediately follows the ceremony, Anheuser-Busch Hall, Crowder Courtyard (3rd floor) and Janite Lee Reading Room (4th floor).
- 8) Immediately following the ceremony diploma distribution will occur in Anheuser-Busch Hall on the 4th floor, northwest section of the Law Library. YOU WILL NEED A PHOTO ID TO PICK UP YOUR DIPLOMA.
- 9) Regalia may be returned by May 21 to the lower level of the Danforth Campus store. An additional site will be available between Simon Hall and Seigle Hall.
- 10) Law School Staff will be available to answer questions and assist you and your guests.
- 11) Tickets are not needed.
- 12) Guests with mobility needs may park at the top of the Snow Way parking garage – with or without a handicapped placard. Parking is first come first served.
- 13) If you have any questions – please call Beverly Owens, 314-935-6482.