

WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
THE CONSTITUTIONAL LAW OF INCARCERATION
FINAL EXAM
SPRING 2006

PROFESSOR: Schlanger

EXAM DATE:
Self-scheduled:
8:45 to 5 pm.

EXAMINATION INSTRUCTIONS

The exam is two pages including this cover sheet.

1. Please return the exam questions with your completed exam. If you use any scratch paper hand it in as well. Remember that even after you have completed your exam, some of your classmates have not completed theirs – so be careful not to discuss the contents.
2. Start each question on a separate page or (if you are hand-writing) in a separate bluebook. Be sure to put your exam number at the top of each of your answers. The type should be 12 point, double space, and have ample margins.
3. This examination is open book and open-note. You may consult any materials that you wish. Obviously, however, the work you hand in should be entirely your own; please remember that plagiarism rules apply in full force to exams. Cutting and pasting from the work of others is forbidden academic dishonesty.
4. You have 8 hours to complete the exam. There are three parts: the first is worth 25% of the total, the second is worth 30% and the third is worth 45%.
5. THERE IS AN OVERALL WORD LIMIT: 4500 WORDS. (This should work out to over 15 pages; feel no obligation to use this much space.) Include the number of words at the end of your exam. I will take sufficient points off if you go over that you are penalized for any violation of this rule. Organize your thoughts carefully; clarity of thought and expression are important. I advise you to spend a substantial amount of time analyzing each question and thinking through each answer before you begin to write.
5. Answer the questions asked. Answer only the questions asked.

Thank you once again for a terrific semester. GOOD LUCK AND HAPPY SUMMER!
