Thursday, January 21, 4-6pm
Danforth University Center (DUC), Room 276
Refreshments Provided

4pm: Dr. Joel Schwartz, Harvard School of Public Health and Harvard Center for the Environment, “Air Pollution, Temperature, and Climate Change: Health Risks and Benefits”

5pm: Panel with Dr. Nadim Kanafani, Pediatrician; Mark Smith, U.S. EPA, Region 7, Chief, Air Permitting and Compliance Branch; Rev. Rodrick Burton, Pastor, New Northside Missionary Baptist Church

Sponsors:
Institute for Public Health, Interdisciplinary Environmental Clinic,
Office of Sustainability

Co-Sponsors:
CS40 EcoReps, Energy and Environmental Law Society, Environmental Studies, Graduate Professional Council, Graduate Student Senate, Green Action, Net Impact, Public Interest Law and Policy Speaker Series, WUSICE