LL.M.
ORIENTATION SCHEDULE
FALL 2007

MONDAY, AUGUST 20
9:00 am – 5:00 pm
Mandatory Reporting Date for Graduate International Students & Check-In
Bring your passport, entry visa, I-94 and I-20 or DS-2019 form and check in with the OISS. Be sure to pick up a WELCOME FOLDER.
2nd Floor of Stix House

International Student Resource Area
Get information and assistance in finding an apartment, banking, transportation, and a variety of other topics.
Stix House Living Room

4:00-5:00 p.m. Enjoy a guided tour of campus, starting at Stix House

7:00-8:30 p.m. Welcome mixer to meet other international students GWB Student Commons, Goldfarb Building

8:30-? Explore the Loop, one of St Louis' most popular neighborhoods for restaurants and music venues. Bring ID and leave from the Welcome Mixer.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 21
9:00 –11:15 Introductions and Preview of Courses & Vocabulary
Room 306
Prof. Michael Koby

11:15 Break

11:30 Welcome Luncheon at the Law School Commons
Dean Kent Syverud

12:30-1:45 Academic Advising Commons
Meet with the faculty advising team to complete your course selection
Complete registration with the Registrar, Dean Colleen Erker

2:00-2:45 Visit the Bookstore and purchase books led by Mentor Coordinator, Sonja Schiller.
Make sure to purchase Law in the United States by Charles Abernathy

3:00-5:00 Graduate International Orientation Program
Room 306
Kathy Steiner Lang, Professor Laura Rosenbury
Programs for International Students at Washington University and Immigration, safety, sexual harassment policy, and health issues will be discussed.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 22
9:00-10:15 Objectives of U.S. Legal Education & Case Briefing I
Room 306
Prof. Charles McManis
Read packet: Case Briefing, pp. 1-12

10:30-11:30 Sources of U.S. Law & Learning to Find Them
Room 306
Professors Greenhaw & Luo
Bring Packet: Research Activity, pp. 1-3

11:30-12:30 Lunch on your own

12:30-2:00 Tour the Law Library
Wei Luo,
Director of Technical Services
Meet on 4th Floor at the entry to the Library

2:00-3:00 Overview of Introduction to U.S. Law & Legal Methods I Course
Room 306
Professors Greenhaw & Koby
Read materials on Legal Education in Law in the United States.

4:00-4:30 Tour of Law School with mentors
3rd Floor Forsyth Entrance

7:00 Movie: The Supreme Court
Room 306

THURSDAY, AUGUST 23

9:00-10:45 Case Briefing II
Room 306
Professor Greenhaw
Assignment will be given in class

11:00-12:00 Introduction to Computer Resources
Room 306
Phil Berwick, Associate Dean, Information Resources

12:00-12:30 Lunch on your own
12:30-1:45  Overview of the U.S. Court System
           Room 306
           Professor. Koby
           Reading assignment will be in the packet.

2:00-3:30  Introduction to the U.S. Constitution
           Professor Greenhaw

3:30-4:30  Photos
           Room

3:30-4:30  LEXIS Registration, 10 students every 10 minutes
           Computer Lab, led by Emilee Baker and Susan Bollman

FRIDAY, AUGUST 24

8:00       Meet to catch Metrolink to Courthouse
           Back of Law School, Forest Park side

8:45-12:00 Tour the County Circuit Court
           We will tour the Justice Center (jail) first and then Judge Drumm will talk about the U.S. Court system followed by a tour of the courthouse.

12:30-1:30 Lunch on your own in downtown Clayton

1:45       Meet to Catch Metrolink back to Law School

SATURDAY, AUGUST 25

SUNDAY, AUGUST 26

5:30-8:00  Welcome dinner at Dean Kent Syverud and Dr. Ruth Chen's home

MONDAY, AUGUST 27, First Day of Class
How to find your first day class assignments: http://law.wustl.edu/Courses/

Friday, August 31st  Law School night at the Cardinals. We play Cincinnati. We have purchased one ticket per LLM student. If you wish to purchase more tickets for your families and friends these will be sold in the Commons during Orientation and the first week of classes. Game time is 7:10; buses leave in front of the School of Law on the Forsyth side (time to determined).

Monday, September 3rd, Labor Day, no classes
TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11

Noon - 1:00  First Tuesday Free Lunch, Umrah Lounge - Optional
The Metro Baptist Association of St. Louis sponsors this weekly lunch for all international students. The luncheons will continue throughout the semester