Are you interested in Human Rights Law?
Do you want to work on dynamic international legal issues?
Can you serve as a role model for area high school students?

Then volunteer to serve as an IHL Student Teacher this semester!
Saturday, 20 September, 8 a.m.-12 noon
Seigle Hall - Room 208
Enrollment – Orientation – Continental Breakfast

Why should I participate?
- Make a difference in your community and the world
- Gain valuable presentation and facilitation experience
- Demonstrate a serious interest in international legal issues

But I don’t have time!
- The program is designed to work easily within your schedule
- Only time commitment: training session (September 20); at least one 60-minute presentation (materials provided) in an area high school classroom; and debriefing lunch in April

Register Now!
[Please register by 12 September]

E-mail: McCall Carter, mccarter@wulaw.wustl.edu; Erika Detjen, eadetjen@wulaw.wustl.edu; or Dayna Frenkel, dmfrenkel@wulaw.wustl.edu to enroll in this exciting program.

McCall, Erika and Dayna are the Student Coordinators for this program. They will get you registered! Do not reply to Linda McClain.

This is the only program of its kind in the country, don’t miss out!
