Agenda for Presentation and Panel Discussion on the Use of Nuclear Weapon

Date: 09/08/08

Time: 6-9pm

Location: Danforth University Center Classroom 276

Sponsors:

International Areas Studies Department

IAS Honorary (SIR)

Heisei Japan Club

Speakers:

Mr. Steven Leeper, Chairman of Hiroshima Peace Culture Foundation

Dr. Michael Lin, Instructor of Radiology at Mallinckrodt Institute of Radiology

Professor Clare Palmer, Associate Professor of Philosophy and Environmental Studies

Professor Leila Sadat, Henry H. Oberschelp Professor of Law, Director of the Harris World Law Institute

Professor Lori Watt, Assistant Professor of History and International & Area Studies

Professor James Wertsch, Marshall S. Snow Professor in Arts & Sciences, Sociocultural Anthropology and Education, Director of McDonnell International Scholars Academy

Outline:

6:00-7:15 pm

1. Greetings by Yiye Zhang
2. Introduction of the survivor Ms.Yoshiko Kajimoto, Chairman of Hiroshima Peace Culture Foundation Steven Leeper and other speakers by Yiye Zhang
3. Short Speech by Chairman Steven Leeper
4. Power-Point Presentation by Ms. Yoshiko Kajimoto

7:15-7:30pm Break

7:30-8:30pm Panel Discussion

1. Introduction of the panel by Weijen Chua, McDonnell Academy
2. Question asked by SIR students

Question 1: What does Hiroshima bring in mind? How was the presentation?

Question 2: Nuclear weapons damages human body greatly; can the use of nuclear weapons ever be justified?

Question 3: Is it possible to abolish nuclear weapons? Does it lead to world peace?

Question 4: How do we live with nuclear weapon?

3. Question time for audience

8:30-9:30pm

1. Closing of the event by Chris Riha
2. Announcement of the reception by Rie Nakanishi, President of Heisei Japan Club
3. Reception