Karen Hall is Team Leader for Rule of Law Issues in Afghanistan at the State Department’s Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs. Since 2005, Karen has led efforts in criminal justice development and legal education in Afghanistan.

Join us for a discussion of the rule of law in Afghanistan, counternarcotics and terrorism, the U.S. Government’s role in supporting justice sector development, and career and student opportunities.

Lunch provided with coffee and dessert to follow in AB311!

Sponsored by

Criminal Law Society
International Law Society
Whitney R. Harris World Law Institute