Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies,
The Student Forum on Sexuality,
The Washington University Law School,
The Brown School Student Coordinating Council invite you to a presentation.

A LEGACY IGNORED?
VIRGINIA JOHNSON
AND SEX THERAPY AT WU

2009:
Hailed as “one of the most significant women in the history of sexuality.”

1966:
Masters and Johnson published The Human Sexual Response, and a paradigm in sexual knowledge shifted.

What should her legacy be in the world and here at WU, where Masters and Johnson started their research?

Speaking: Thomas Maier, author of Masters of Sex

Panel:
Linda Weiner, MSW, LCSW, Masters and Johnson-trained sex therapist
Susan Appleton, Lemma Barkeloo and Phoebe Cousins Professor of Law, WUL
Susan Stiritz, Senior Lecturer, WGSS, moderator

October 6, 2009, 5-7 pm, McMillan Cafe