FEATURES

2 OPENING DOORS TO THE FUTURE
Washington University School of Law has joined a University-wide initiative to increase financial aid for students.

9 OPENING DOORS FOR OTHERS
Initiative chairs have firsthand knowledge of scholarships’ impact.

10 ON THE BENCH
Scholarship recipient has distinguished career as EEOC judge.

12 SPORTS & LAW
Several alumni combine law with the high-profile world of sports.

24 WHY I TEACH
Professor Susan Appleton describes the rewards of teaching.

26 CLINICAL EDUCATION EXPANSION
The Clinical Program, under new leadership, addresses a changing market.

34 INTERDISCIPLINARY CENTER’S NEW FOCUS
Issues of work, social capital will be explored in the newly renamed center.

DEPARTMENTS

30 IN REVIEW
Professor Emily Hughes: “Mitigating Death”

32 IN REVIEW
Professor Carl F. Minzner: “Riots and Cover-Ups: Counterproductive Control of Local Agents in China”

36 ON CAMPUS
Student journals are at the front lines of legal scholarship.

38 FACULTY PROFILE
Professor Daniel Keating hangs up administrative jersey, returns to full-time teaching lineup.

39 FACULTY PROFILE
Professor A. Peter Mutharika advances the rule of law through his role in the Malawi government.

40 ALUMNI NEWS
Alumna Julie Compton publishes second novel.

41 SPOTLIGHT
Alumnus Michael Shindler continues his successful career in hospitality.

42 CLASS NOTES

48 IN MEMORIAM

49 END PAPER
Professor Mae C. Quinn: “Time for an Intervention: Rethinking Drug Treatment Courts”