Charlotte Legal Diversity Clerkship

QUICK FACTS

WHO
All first-year law students (expected graduation date Spring 2019) who advance the value of diversity in the Charlotte legal market may apply.

WHAT
A highly competitive program sponsored by the Mecklenburg County Bar (Charlotte, NC), where rising 2Ls spend six weeks as a summer associate at a law firm and six weeks as a legal intern in a corporate legal department.

WHERE
At one of four corporate legal departments: Bank of America; Duke Energy Corporation; Ingersoll Rand; or Wells Fargo & Company
AND
At one of seven law firms: Alston & Bird LLP; K&L Gates LLP; Mayer Brown LLP; McGuireWoods LLP; Moore & Van Allen PLLC; Parker Poe Adams & Bernstein LLP; or Robinson Bradshaw & Hinson, P.A.

WHEN
Applications are due by 12 p.m., Friday, January 20, 2017.

The program runs Monday, May 15, 2017 – Friday, August 4, 2017.

WHY
To gain valuable legal experience in a progressive and dynamic city.

HOW TO APPLY

Your application must include:

- Résumé
- College and first-semester law school transcripts
- Writing sample
- Brief statement (1-2 pages) explaining how you would contribute to the goal of creating a more diverse legal community in Charlotte, and why you would like to practice in Charlotte

Application materials must be submitted electronically at:

meckbar.careers.micronapps.com

APPLICATION DEADLINE

All materials must be received by 12 p.m. on Friday, January 20, 2017 to be considered.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews will be conducted in Charlotte in February.

The participating legal departments and law firms will cover reasonable travel costs for the candidates who are selected for in-person interviews.

More details at www.MeckBar.org