ACCESS TO JUSTICE
Fourteenth Annual Public Interest Law & Policy Speakers Series
2011 - 2012

Jennifer Robbennolt
University of Illinois
Mea Culpa: The Role of Apologies in Legal Decision-making
Tuesday, September 6, 2011
12 p.m.

Mariano-Florentino Cuéllar
Stanford University
From Migration to Food Security: Reflections on Law, Policy, and Political Judgment
Monday, November 21, 2011
12 p.m.

Fatou Bensouda
International Criminal Court
World Peace Through Law
Thursday, September 22, 2011
12 p.m.

Kenneth Mack
Harvard University
Representing a Race: The Creation of a Civil Rights Lawyer
Wednesday, January 18, 2012
12 p.m.

Brad Seligman
Impact Fund
What Wal-Mart v. Dukes Means for Civil Rights Class Action Cases
Tuesday, October 4, 2011
12 p.m.

Dorothy Roberts
Northwestern University
Fatal Invention: How Science, Politics, and Big Business Re-create Race in the Twenty-first Century
Tuesday, February 14, 2012
12 p.m.

Adam Winkler
U.C.L.A.
Gunfight: The Battle over the Right to Bear Arms in America
Monday, October 10, 2011
12 p.m.

Kris Henning
Georgetown University
Addressing the Crisis in Indigent Juvenile Defense
Thursday, March 22, 2012
12 p.m.

Kent Greenfield
Boston College
The Myth of Choice: Personal Responsibility in a World of Limits
Wednesday, October 26, 2011
12 p.m.

Hon. Robert Katzmann
Second Circuit Court of Appeals
Immigrant Representation: Overcoming Barriers
Monday, March 26, 2012
12 p.m.