FAMILY LAW

For students considering a practice that includes family law, the following list identifies core classroom courses, as well as related courses, more specialized courses and seminars, skills courses, and clinics. Please check the Course Directory for course descriptions. Also, please note that not all these courses are offered every year. If you would like more individualized guidance in these areas, please feel free to contact Professors Appleton, Professor Quinn, or other faculty members.

Core Classroom Courses

Adoption and Assisted Reproduction

Children and the Law

Family Law

Related Classroom Courses (including classroom courses that devote some coverage to family law topics or would be helpful for family law practice, while covering other topics as well)

Bioethics and Law

Conflict of Laws

Estate and Gift Taxation

Federal Income Tax

Feminist Legal Theory

First Amendment in Schools (seminar)

Genetics Ethics Law and Policy (seminar)

Individual Rights and the Constitution

Public Education and Social Policy

Race, Public Education, and the Law (seminar)

Regulating Sex: Historical and Cultural Encounters (seminar)

Trusts and Estates

Applied Lawyering Skills Courses (including simulation courses focusing on family law topics and those emphasizing more general training that might be useful in a family law practice)

Domestic Violence and the Law
Family Law Drafting

Family Mediation Theory and Practice

Pretrial Practice and Settlement

Sexuality and the Law: Theory and Practice

Trial Practice

Clinics (entailing client representation, with Rule 13 eligibility required)

Civil Justice Clinic: Child and Family Defense Project

Civil Justice Clinic: Juvenile Rights and Reentry Project