1. Chapter 2 - State Law Debt Collection:
   A. The Struggle Among Creditors: Priority pp. 48-79
      (1) Problem Set 3: pp. 77-78.

2. Chapter 3 - Introduction to Bankruptcy

3. Chapter 4 - Elements Common to Consumer Bankruptcies:
   A. Introduction and the Estate: pp. 119-136
      (1) Problem Set 5: pp. 136-137
      (1) Problem Set 6: pp. 145-146

4. Chapter 5 - Liquidation Bankruptcy:
   A. Introduction and Eligibility: pp. 149-167
      (1) Problem Set 7: pp. 167-169
   B. Property Exempt From Seizure: pp. 169-194
      (1) Problem Set 8: pp. 194-196
      Homesteads, Trusts and Exemption Planning, pp. 196-217
      (2) Problem Set 9: pp. 217-218
   C. Claims and Distributions: pp. 218-227
      (1) Problem Set 10: pp. 227-228
      (2) Problem Set 11: pp. 228-229
   D. Discharge: pp. 229-252
      (1) Problem Set 12: pp. 252-254
   E. Reaffirmation and Redemption: pp. 254-277
      (1) Problem Set 13: pp. 277-279

5. Chapter 6 - Chapter 13 Bankruptcy:
      (1) Problem Set 14: pp. 310-313
   B. Payments to Unsecured Creditors: pp. 313-326
      (1) Problem Set 15: pp. 326-328
   C. Threshold Eligibility for Chapter 13: pp. 328-337
      (1) Problem Set 16: pp. 337-338
6. Chapter 7 - Liquidation

   A. Business Liquidations: pp. 369-375

   B. Involuntary Bankruptcies: pp. 375-390
      (1) Problem Set 18: pp. 390-393

7. Chapter 8 - Chapter 11 Reorganization

   A. Introduction to Business Reorganizations: pp. 395-414

   B. The Automatic Stay and Adequate Protection pp. 414-434
      (1) Problem Set 19: pp. 434-437

   C. Operating in Chapter 11 (Who’s Running the Show and What Happens to the Cash): pp. 437-457
      (1) Problem Set 20: pp. 458-459

   D. Post-Petition Financing: pp. 459-475
      (1) Problem Set 21: pp. 475-477

   E. Reshaping the Estate: pp. 478-483
      (1) Problem Set 22: pp. 483-484

   F. Preferences: pp. 484-491
      (1) Problem Set 23: pp. 491-493

   G. Exceptions: pp. 493-509
      (1) Problem Set 24: pp. 509-510

* NOTE. There is a significant chance that we will not cover all of the material. At the end of each class, I will give you the assignment due for the following class. Please complete all assignment prior to attending class.