DESIGN YOUR EDUCATION AT WashU Law

Washington University in St. Louis
School of Law

- Interdisciplinary Environmental Studies
- NY Financial Regulatory
- Semester in Practice
- Washington, DC Congressional & Administrative Law (30 Years)

- Clinical Education Courses 16 Total
- Externships 9 Total 6 Outside St. Louis

- Clincics 7 Total
- Interdisciplinary Studies

- Centers & Institutes 4
- Law & Policy

- Journals 4
- LLM Programs 5

- Trial Team & Moot Courts 6
- Employment

- Clinical Education Courses 16 Total

- University in St. Louis
- Business School

- Joint Degrees

- Social Work School

- Medical School

- Engineering School

- International

- Intellectual Property

- Economic Growth

- Empirical Research

- World Law

- Faculty 10:1 faculty to student ratio

- This is only the beginning. Explore more options at: Law.wustl.edu
SPOTLIGHT ON Washington University School of Law’s award-winning Clinical Education Program, consistently ranked among the nation’s premier programs, with 16 distinct law clinics and externships. They provide law students with opportunities to learn professional skills and values by working directly with clients, attorneys, judges, and legislators.

JOURNALS: JOURNAL OF LAW & POLICY

There are 4 journals at Washington University School of Law. The Journal of Law & Policy, unlike most law reviews, centers each volume around a pertinent theme or issue. The articles therein are authored by professors of law, legal practitioners, judges, and distinguished scholars from a variety of academic disciplines. This journal offers students the unique opportunity to interact with respected scholars on a substantive level.

INTERNATIONAL: WHITNEY R. HARRIS WORLD LAW INSTITUTE

There are unlimited opportunities during your legal education at Washington University School of Law to position yourself for international or global practice. One of the many opportunities, The Whitney R. Harris World Law Institute, was created to serve as a center for instruction and research in international and comparative law. The Harris Institute has sponsored more than 75 speakers and held or co-sponsored more than 20 major international conferences since it opened. There are many opportunities for international experience here at Washington University School of Law.

PRACTICAL SKILLS: CLINICS

Washington University School of Law’s award-winning Clinical Education Program, consistently ranked among the nation’s premier programs, with 16 distinct law clinics and externships. They provide law students with opportunities to learn professional skills and values by working directly with clients, attorneys, judges, and legislators.

INNOVATIVE EXPERIENCE: SEMESTER-IN-PRACTICE

The Semester-in-Practice Externship is an innovative program that empowers second- and third-year law students to gain hands-on professional experience anywhere outside the St. Louis area. Through this externship, students earn academic credit by spending a semester working full time for a nonprofit, government, or in-house corporate law office in the location of their choice.