What are the Eliot Society Challenges?

You have the opportunity to significantly increase the impact of your gift this year. The following Eliot Society challenges have been established by anonymous donors to encourage others to increase their level of annual support.

- The $75,000 New Eliot Challenge will match every new School of Law Eliot Society member’s contribution of $1,000 or more with an additional $1,000 gift to the School. If you have are joining the Eliot Society for the first time or renewing a lapsed membership, the Challenge will match your Eliot Society gift.

- The $530,000 Challenge Fund will provide a bonus to the University for every new Eliot Society Fellow and Eliot Society Benefactor. A gift of $2,500 to $4,999 will qualify you for membership as a Fellow in the Eliot Society and provide a bonus of $2,500 to the University. A gift of $5,000 to $9,999 will qualify you for membership as an Eliot Society Benefactor and provide a bonus of $5,000 to the University.

The Challenge is for every new gift at the Fellows or Benefactors level, whether you are joining the Eliot Society for the first time, increasing your level of support, or renewing a lapsed membership.

You will receive all the benefits of Eliot Society membership, plus:

You may designate each gift of $2,500 or more to establish a named annual scholarship.

Gifts must be made by June 30, 2007 to earn a challenge bonus.
