HONORARY ORDER OF THE COIF

Christine A. Ryan currently serves as Deputy Attorney General for State Counsel, a member of the New York State Attorney General's leadership team. The New York Attorney General Division of State Counsel consists of seven bureaus statewide that handle litigation involving the State of New York, including its agencies and officials.

Christine oversees over 6,500 active cases statewide and manages 250 employees, including 165 attorneys. Their work encompasses the prosecution and defense of actions and complex cases, both in state and federal court, on behalf of executive branch officials, the legislature, state agencies, officials, and employees. Christine previously worked at the Illinois Attorney General's Office as Chief of Civil Trials, where she handled a wide range of affirmative and defensive matters.

She also serves on the Washington University School of Law Board of Advisors and on the advisory board of Good Sports, a non-profit organization that drives equitable access in youth sports. Christine also earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from Boston University, a Master in Public Administration degree from Columbia University, and a JD degree from WashULaw. She is married to one of her former WashULaw classmates, and two of their daughters are currently undergraduates at the university. Their elder daughter graduates this year.
