Research Support

- The Law Library provides a wide range of assistance in support of your research and teaching.
- Examples include: identifying relevant primary and secondary authorities, finding factual and statistical information, compiling bibliographies, and developing research guides (aka LibGuides) for your seminar courses.
- We also deliver library books to your mailbox and auto renew your books.
- Those wishing to complete their own online catalog and/or database searches can do so using the links on the Law Library’s homepage https://law.wustl.edu/faculty-and-research/law-library/.
- You are free to contact us at any time during your research with questions that arise.
